
Neotech Institute of Pharmacy

"Soft-Skill Development Training"

Date: 24th January 2025

Resource Person - Mr Akash

CEO, Educroma Analytical Training and Service Centre, Vadodara

On January 24th, 2025, Neotech Institute of Pharmacy hosted a "Soft-Skill Development Training" program, featuring Mr. Akash, the CEO of Educroma Analytical Training and Service Centre in Vadodara, as the distinguished resource person. The session was designed to enhance essential soft skills such as communication, leadership, teamwork, time management, and emotional intelligence, which are crucial for professional success. Mr. Akash, with his extensive experience in training and development, shared valuable insights and practical strategies for improving interpersonal and professional interactions. Participants engaged in interactive activities, discussions, and real-world applications, gaining tools to boost their career growth and personal development. The program was well-received and aimed to empower attendees with the skills necessary to thrive in today's dynamic work environment.

